Prayer

Graceful God, like a loving parent, you search the horizons for the return of wayward children; like a compassionate judge, you see our hearts more than our actions. Help us to remember that you are always quicker to forgive than we are to ask, and that while we cling to our past, you have cast our iniquities into the depths of the ocean. Give us your grace to see our shortcomings and confess them to you. Give us your courage to change our lives to live into your holiness. Give us your humility so that we extend your forgiveness to those who have wronged us as well. Amen.
